The musical score is presented in five systems. Each system consists of a musical staff with a treble clef and a guitar tab below it. The first system starts with a measure number '1' and includes the instruction 'let ring throughout'. The second system starts with a measure number '4'. The third system starts with a measure number '8'. The fourth system starts with a measure number '11'. The fifth system starts with a measure number '15'. The guitar tab includes fret numbers, accidentals, and a 'let ring throughout' instruction. The score ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style with many eighth and sixteenth notes. The middle staff is a guitar accompaniment line with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It features a series of chords and single notes, often with a bass line. The bottom staff is a bass line with a bass clef and a key signature of one flat, providing a steady accompaniment. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The first measure is marked with a "21" in the top left corner.

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of two staves. The top staff is a guitar melody in treble clef, starting at measure 27. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody includes several triplet markings. The bottom staff is a fingered bass line in bass clef, corresponding to the guitar melody. It uses numbers 1-4 for fingers and 0 for the open string. The score is divided into two sections by a double bar line, with the first section labeled "VIII" and the second section labeled "VIII".
